The summer season is just around the corner and there are many reasons to plan a visit here: from the mountains, for nature and sports fans, to the city, with cultural and musical events, to the sweet declines of the hills, for a walk outdoors and relaxing breaks in uncontaminated scenarios ... for itineraries and products designed to meet the taste and needs of all tourists!

Visit Turin and follow the beat

MITO - Settembre Musica

3rd to 26th September – various locations

Enjoy the third edition of this grand festival, that builds on the 30-year experience of Settembre Musica and brings together Turin and Milan for a calendar of sophisticated and thrilling events: this year's theme is music at the time of the multicultural society, where differences become opportunities to enhance our knowledge. From the Saint Petersburg Philharmonic Orchestra to the Accademia Nazionale Santa Cecilia, from the Orchestra and the Chorus of Turin's Teatro Regio to the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra, from the Swedish Radio Symphony Orchestra to the exclusive Accardo Quartet, these are all events your clients simply cannot miss.

Teatro Regio di Torino

The new Opera season starts in October, with eleven extremely popular titles and six new productions, including the season's opening with La Traviata, Rossini's Tancredi and the great Italian melodrama with Il barbiere di Siviglia, L'elisir d'amore and La bohème. And in December ballet will have central stage with The Nutcracker!

Orchestra Sinfonica Nazionale della Rai

In mid October the new Symphonic season of the RAI National Orchestra begins, and 24 weekly concerts will bring the greatest names on the stage the "Arturo Toscanini" Rai Auditorium: from soloists Natalia Gutman, Radu Lupu, Nicolaj Znaider, and Angela Hewitt to world-famous conductors James Conlon, Mikhail Jurowski, Rafael

Naturally ... Turin's Province

Discover the scenery and the evocative cycling tourism and mountain bike trails, from the opening of the Alpi Bike Resort to the events that, like landscapes of the Turin Alps on a lovely summer day: from day trips for all kinds of visitors to every year, are organised across the area. If you love beauty and wish to know how far art can go to breathe life into inert matter, on a day off take a stroll at the Venaria, and when you leave you will be satisfied, and bring away a trove of new ideas and pleasant sensations..."

The Royal Palace of Venaria, every time a surprise

A stop that simply cannot be missed when in Turin, where the visiting itinerary is constantly evolving to make your experience truly unique and unforgettable.

- The complex: a unique environmental-architectural continuum of extraordinary charm, a boundless space that is varied and suggestive, where the visitor is swept into the magical atmosphere created by the wealth of cultural and leisure attractions available, starting with the Palace itself, the marvellous Gardens, the Ancient Village nearby into which the compound naturally blends, and the Stables by Juvarra, the new exhibition space of the Orangery and the Main Stables.

- Theatre of History and Magnificence: from July 1st a new grand visiting itinerary awaits the visitors to take them on a tour of the displays on the underground and ground floors: paintings, furniture, sculptures and installations celebrate the Court's collections, the Royal Residences and the genius of the architects. The new itinerary also includes the temporary exhibition on Royal Crowns and Jewellery.

- Royal Sundays: to experience life at Court and the festive celebrations of fun and splendour, the ritual preparation for the hunt, theatre and musical performances, find the same festive atmosphere in the Gardens every Sunday and on holidays starting at 2.30 pm for the whole summer, with performances and shows by Italian and foreign artists that will recreate long-gone suggestions and opportunities for cultural entertainment for all visitors.
- Venaria Real Festival: jazz, classical and contemporary music, but also rock and pop find their place in this evocative scenario reminiscent of a distant past. From June 25 to August 1 come to the great concerts by Italian and international artists for a magical night in the Gardens.
